“Everything [Eagle Village does] has a reason and a purpose and it works.”
– Drew, Former Resident

OUR RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS

Eagle Village Residential Programs are designed by mental health professionals to achieve lasting results.

Connections: Mental Health and Behavior Stabilization

Structured care for youth that need additional support. This program includes positive behavior integration strategies. Staff to youth ratio is 1:4.

Connections: Post-Adoption Care

Help for adopted youth struggling in their families. Past disappointments and emotional wounds are met head-on to help youth develop trust and confidence. Family involvement is a crucial element to this program.

Wings: Assistance for the Abused/Neglected

Trauma therapy specifically designed for youth who have been abused and/or neglected. This program provides youth a safe place to recover and relearn social skills such as setting appropriate boundaries and defining roles within a family.

Altitudes: Residential Intervention

Intervention for youth that are acting out and making decisions that put their futures at risk. Attitudes and behaviors are redirected to positive outlets and emphasis is placed on learning consequences and responsibility.

Passages: Passageway to Success for Those Aging out of Foster Care

Prepares teens for adulthood. This program teaches teens practical skills necessary for independent living. Passages also includes enrollment into our Vocational Tech Program which prepares teens for future employment opportunities through trade and job skills training.
